This secluded parc is located at Oxwich in South Gower. Uncommercialised, the parc is ideal for the smaller family and those wanting to relax throughout the seasons.

There is a beach adjacent where safe bathing and all watersports can be enjoyed. There is a general stores (seasonal) close by and a hotel within walking distance open all year, serving great food all day every day.

The Gower Peninsular was designated Britain's first area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the 1950's. Totally unspoilt, visitors can enjoy beautiful rolling countryside and exquisite sandy bays.
